

REMARKS

Initially, applicant has added a cross-reference to related application as can be noted herein. If the examiner will note, the declaration already contained a reference to the provisional patent application No. 60/404,545.

The filing of this petition for adding the cross-reference into the application was delayed unintentionally, since it was believed that the proper claim to priority had been made in the application as filed.

Whatever charges are due for the filing of this cross-reference to related application, please debit our deposit account No. 040731.

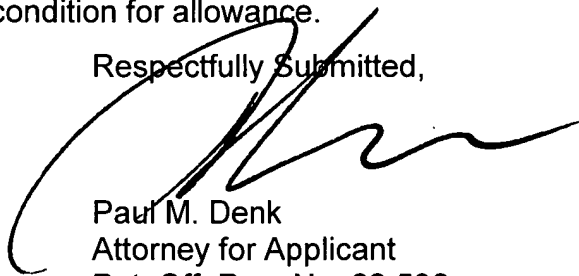

The specification has been amended in the manner as suggested by the examiner.

The claims have been amended in the manner as suggested by the examiner.

Also enclosed are fresh drawings for this application, and the reference numerals 3 and 25 have been corrected.

With the submission of this amendment, it would appear that this application may now be in condition for allowance.

Respectfully Submitted,

Paul M. Denk
